

MARADYNE Corporation

We are committed to:

- Long-term sustainable approach to caring for and safeguarding the environment.
- Managing environmental impact as an integral part of our operations.
- Assuring the environmental integrity of our processes and facilities at all times.
- Continuing to conduct affairs in an environmentally responsible manner as well as comply with all global, federal, state, and local environmental laws and regulations
- Preserving and protecting the natural environment including the air, water, land and other natural resources.

